

ROYAL FAMILY KIDS' CAMP

Mesa Church 2025

RFKC Camper Behavior Agreement

Please review the following basic behavior requirements with your children who will be attending camp and sign off on your understanding of the agreement.

The camper has been advised and agrees to cooperate with an assigned counselor, to remain with them at all times unless they are granted permission to be with another designated adult staff member or Counselor.

The camper has been advised and agrees to follow all Royal Family Kids' Camp Rules, to be respectful and kind to other campers, to make the right choices, and to follow directions from RFKC Counselors and Staff.

The camper has been advised and understands that if they are disrespectful, choose to fight, be aggressive or become a danger to him/herself or others, that the Camp Director or a designated Staff Member may call their Facility Director/Guardian and the camper may be sent home.

As a Facility Director /Foster Parent /Guardian, I understand that if called due to the behavior of my camper(s), someone will be available and responsible to come to Pilgrim Pines Camp and pick up said camper within two hours.
